Some Stores are Dull now but we are Busy as Bees "

One don't have to look far for the reason, either. We are busy because we offer people inducements to spend their money with us. It is, and always has been, our policy to do business, even if it were necessary to give our customers a good share of the profits.

The prices we are quoting on desirable goods below are an object lesson in this respect. Certainly no local merchant or city dealer, either, will sell those goods at our prices.

The Teachers' Social given Monday evening was well attended and a good time was enjoyed by all. An interesting program was rendered by teachers and High School students, after ice-cream and cake had been served. Our teachers are among the best that can be found and to spend an evening with them, makes us feel we have been made better by being there.

What among human ills are more annoying than piles? The afflictions that prevent active exercise are bad enough, but one that makes even rest miserable is worse. Women are among its greatest martyrs. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment will cure the most obstinate cases. Prices—50 cts. in bottle, tabs 75c. Quigley & Chapman, druggists.

WEDDING BELLS.

LINEBRINK—RINECK.—Chas. Linebrink of Chesterfield, Nebr., and Miss Mary Rineck of Fairfield, Wis., were united in marriage by Judge Towne, July 8th.

They will begin housekeeping on Mr. Linebrink's ranch near Chesterfield.

ARCHER—STILLWELL.—Capt. Archer and Mrs. Lillie A. Stillwell were married last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Cumbow.

A crowd of young people went up to serenade them and came marching down the street at about 9:30 o'clock with the captain and his bride at the head of the torchlight procession. After trying to arouse the restaurants to get ice cream to no avail the crowd slowly wended their way back up the street feeling, perhaps, that they were the ones who were serenaded.

HARPER—MANN.—Harry W. Harper and Miss Melinda Mann of Valentine, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Austin, on July 8th, 1900.

Rev. Jas. A. Johnson officiated. There were about thirty guests present.

Myron Cogswell and Jessie Bowring held the places of honor as best man and lady.

A number of nice presents were given Mr. and Mrs. Harper by friends. Harry had provided an ample repast of many good things to eat and all present seemed to have a jolly good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper will leave for Iowa in a few days for a two-month's wedding tour, after which they will return and make Cherry county their future home.

The good wishes of all present were given for a long and happy marriage.

Did We Celebrate?

Y. Valentine celebrated. Thousands of people were here with new hats, fine dresses and holiday smiles, but all were spoiled when it began to rain. The firepoppers got damp and wouldn't go. The powder washed off, the curls straightened, dresses were bedabbled, smiles gave way to frowns, but it rained right on. Some said "What a nice rain!" Others said "Perfectly awful!" and "Why couldn't it rain some other time!" But it kept right on raining. Some soldier boys got into a mix up but they soon got over it and went marching along the street as unconcerned as if they didn't know that it was raining and the water over their shoe tops, but they waded across the streets wherever it came handy. The program was rendered as published. The parade was grand and well worth seeing. It was equal to any city parade and our townsmen deserve a great deal of praise for their ingenuity and business enterprise. Ask about the different floats and you will hear their praise from any one who was present. Too bad that more of our citizens did not participate in this grandest day for Valentine. The singing was immense, the bands played everything but "Annie Rooney" and "A Hot Time." The speaker—Harry O. Tucker—soared the American eagle so high that there was a demand for water and it came. The people found shelter but some had to go home and it was still raining so they took off their hats, covered up with whatever they had to use and pulled out for home in the most glorious rain of this season. There was a total of 3.02 inches rainfall for the 4th day of July, including a short sprinkle on the morning of the 5th, and as June was the driest month we have had for 12 years we were all glad to see it rain. The sports were just beginning when the rain drove every one to shelter. A dance in Cornell Hall attracted and entertained many of the young people. Others went to Hornby's Hall to an Epworth League social. They all come to Valentine to celebrate right.

A. U. Mayfield was in town this week. Mr. Mayfield, who is one of the brightest newspaper men in the west, conducts the "Rips From the Buzz Saw" column in the Omaha Daily News in which he is winning fame as a genuine humorist.

Will Boyer, of Lead, S. D., visited in our city a few days this week as the guest of his sisters—Mesdames Sherman—and his brother, U. Boyer. He was accompanied by his nephew, Master Joe Burgess. Mr. Boyer is out of the firm of Boyer Bros., merchants, of Lead City.

ORIGINAL OBERAMMERGAU PASSION PLAY.

Under the management of Dr. John H. Scherer and the lectures of the two professors—Jacob Willig and Chas. Brey, will be given at Cornell Hall at Valentine, Wednesday, July 18th at 8 p.m.

This is the original Oberammergau Passion Play copied from the scenery at Oberammergau, Bavaria, Germany, from large photographs that were taken for the King of Bavaria, which were afterward subjected to Edison's science and by him made into living, moving pictures reproducing the realistic features of the great original passion play which is the astonishment and admiration of the most learned and cultured people of Europe and America, consisting of 175 pictures of the life of Christ—his miracles, sufferings and death—together with pictures of the holy places made sacred thereby. Admission, 50c. Reserved seats, 75c. Children, 25c. Crowds always attend this play so secure tickets right away and come early.

The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most all of the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times." For sale by Quigley & Chapman.
